

Example of an injury location chart (or "body map")

Indicate, with an arrow from the description to the body image, where any injury was observed. Indicate the number of injuries of each type in the space provided. Mark and describe all bruises, scratches, lacerations, bite marks, etc.

Encounters:

Cuts _____

Bites _____

Bruises _____

Burns _____

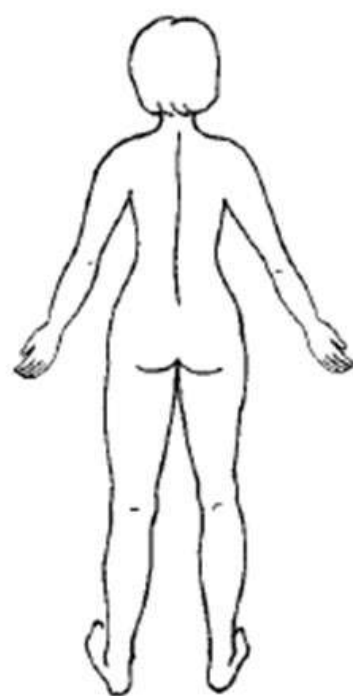

Bone fractures _____

Punctures _____

Abrasions _____

Bleeding _____

Dislocations _____

Source: Adapted from Improving the Health Care Response to Domestic Violence: A Resource Manual for Health Care Providers, by Carole Warshaw, Anne L. Ganley, and Patricia R. Salter, San Francisco: The Family Violence Prevention Fund, 1995. Used with permission of the Family Violence Prevention Fund.